Wow! Love it. I knew there was scientology mystery in the background of this. Let's amp this up and get some ex scientologists to speculate more. We have one right? Saying Suri cd possibly be branded a weaker being or whatever they call it.

Agrees. Plus the kate story is everytwwhheerreee right now have updates coming later abt Suri

Confidential Source called this morning

And Something very weird going on. I think SciTi preventing him from coming Because toms team pressuring Katie's team to make a comment abt our story but they are saying "well where the hell are u?" he hasn't come so it's legit. They r confused why he is making a big stink but not coming

They r shocked he hasn't flown in yet for a big PR photo. But he hasn't

Confidential Source

I'm trying to get them to be more open bc I get the sense this is now a Connor/Isabella/ kidman situation where it's just done . But who knows.
